Griffin vs. Mack

For IBF #1 Title Eliminator and USBA Light Heavyweight Title

Woodland Hills, California (February 14, 2011) - Art of Boxing Promotions in association with Bash Boxing and Lights Out Promotions have added another USBA title bout to the third installment of WARNER CENTER WAR on Friday, March 4, 2011.

In the co-main event, Otis Griffin (23-6-2, 9 KOs), ranked #7 by the IBF, puts his USBA light-heavyweight title on the line against Yusaf Mack (28-3-2, 17 KOs), who is ranked #8 in. This is a world title elimination bout with the winner becoming the mandatory challenger to IBF light-heavyweight champion, Tavoris Cloud.

Griffin, from Sacramento, California, is a former NABO champion and the winner of Oscar De La Hoya's reality show, "The Next Great Champ". Griffin comes into this bout riding a four fight winning streak, which includes an eight round knockout against former world champion Byron Mitchell, to win the USBA light-heavyweight title.

Mack, from Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, is a former USBA, NABF, and NABO champion. Winning five of his last six fights, he's earned a #8 world ranking in the IBF, and a shot at Giffin for the #1 mandatory position to fight for the world title.

The 12 round main event for the vacant USBA lightweight championship features Ray Beltran Jr. (23-4, 15 KOs)
Carlos Vinan (10-8-2, 2 KOs)
