The twin brother of fellow undefeated prospect Jermell, Jermall Charlo (9-0, 5 KO's) has been steadily building his professional resume and he's made it clear that he wants one more victory before 2013 begins. The 22-year-old Charlo is coming off of a fifth round technical knockout win over Sean Wilson in March, and will look for his tenth straight against Chicago's Edgar Perez (5-1, 3 KO's), a Puerto Rico native making his first U.S. start this weekend.

The only three-time U.S. Olympian in history, Cincinnati's Rau'Shee Warren (1-0) was one of the most decorated amateurs this nation has ever seen. Looking to build a similar resume as a professional, the 25-year-old got off to a good start on November 9 with a four round win over Luis Rivera in his pro debut. On Saturday, he will meet Montebello's David Reyes (2-2-1) in a four-round bantamweight fight.

Hailing from Coram, New York, junior welterweight Jamel Herring is the latest member of the Class of 2012 to enter the professional fight game. A two-time Gold medalist in the Armed Forces Championships, the former number one ranked U.S. junior welterweight will face Jose Valderrama (3-2, 3 KO's) of Manati, Puerto Rico in a four round junior welterweight match.

In a light heavyweight bout scheduled for six rounds, Fort Washington, Maryland's Thomas Williams (10-0, 7 KO's) will attempt to extend his three-fight first round knockout streak when he takes on Obregon, Mexico's Ricardo Campillo (7-4-1, 5 KO's).

Plus, Santa Ana's Erick Ituarete (3-0) meets debuting San Jose product Noe Lucas in a junior lightweight match, Vallejo's Gerald Washington (4-0, 3 KO's) is pitted against Hannibal, Missouri's Marcus Washington (1-0, 1 KO) in heavyweight action and Toledo, Ohio's Robert Easter Jr. (1-0, 1 KO) takes on Albuquerque lightweight David Castillo (3-4) in the opening fight. This trio of bouts are scheduled for four rounds each.
