

Winner Of Judah-Matthysse Will Fight For Vacant IBF Title

Written by TSS Press
Friday, 22 October 2010 19:00

Zab Judah vs. Lucas Matthysse

IBF Jr. Welterweight Voluntary Eliminatorfor #2

October 22, 2010

Main Events CEO, Kathy Duva, received notification today from Lindsey E. Tucker, Jr., Championship Chairman IBF/USBA, that the IBF has granted formal sanction approval for the Judah - Matthysse fight. The fight willtake place on November 6, 2010 at the Prudential Center in Newark, New Jersey. Mr. Tucker stated theIBF Jr. Welterweight title is vacant and the winner of this eliminator for #2 will fight #1, Kaizer Mabuza, for the vacant IBF Jr. Welterweight Championship.

Fight Details:

Judah vs. Matthysse, a twelve round NABO junior welterweight championship and IBF #2 eliminator bout, is part of an exciting night of boxing at Newarks Prudential Center. The show is presented by Main Events, Super Judah Promotions, and Golden Boy Promotions. Doors open at 6:00pm, first bout to follow immediately. The HBO Boxing After Dark telecast begins at 11:15pm ET / PT.

Tickets priced at $53, $78, $103 and $253 (ringside) can be purchased at Prudential Center Box Office, by calling TicketMaster at 800-745-3000 or www.Prucenter.com .