

amanda Serrano Joins Huge Boxing 360 Stable

Written by The Sweet Science
Wednesday, 09 March 2011 15:15

Undefeated Amanda Serrano

joins Boxing 360 stable

NEW YORK (Mar. 9, 2011) – Undefeated title challenger Amanda “The Real Deal” Serrano has signed an exclusive promotional with Boxing 360 and joined the New York-based company’s growing stable of future champions.

The 23-year-old Serrano (8-0-1, 4 KOs), who was born in Puerto Rico, now fighting out of Brooklyn, is slick-boxing younger sister of former lightweight contender, Cindy Serrano. Amanda is presently rated No. 3 by independent source WBAN, as well as No. 7 by the WIBA.

“I wasn’t sure about getting involved in female boxing,” Boxing 360 CEO & Founder Mario Yagobi explained. “But I was at her last fight in upstate New York and I was unbelievably impressed by what I saw from her in the ring. I was equally impressed outside of the ring when we spoke. All she does is train to fight. She doesn’t have a cell phone, a boyfriend, or even go out with friends. She trains everyday to the point of exhaustion, goes home to sleep, and then it is right back to the gym the next day for the same routine. Amanda Serrano is a world champion in the making and we’re going to position here for that opportunity.”

amanda Serrano Joins Huge Boxing 360 Stable

Written by The Sweet Science
Wednesday, 09 March 2011 15:15

In her last bout in January, Serrano thoroughly dominated rugged Ela Nunez for a win by unanimous 6-round decision, avenging the only blemish on Amanda's record, a draw versus Nunez in 2009.

Boxing 360 Director of Boxing Bob Duffy believes Amanda is ready to challenge cross-town rival Maureen Shea, the reigning NABF featherweight champion from the Bronx. "I think it's a natural for New York City and would draw a lot of interest," Duffy said. "Maureen is the first female NABF champ from New York City. She's the best and Amanda wants to fight the best. She needs to get past Maureen to get to where she eventually wants to reach."

Other members of Boxing 360's stable include USBA heavyweight champion Maurice "Sugar Moe" Harris, WBC #3 rated super bantamweight contender Leon "Hurry Up" Moore, former IBF super middleweight champion Alejandro "Naco" Berrio, NY State super middleweight title-holder Lennox "2 Sharpe" Allen, KO king Tyrone Brunson, Nick "Hands of Gold" Casal, Mike Mollo, Joshua "The Juice" Harris, Emad Ali, Angel "Toro" Hernandez and "King" David Estrada.

Go to www.Boxing360.com for more information about Serrano, Boxing 360 or any of its other fighters, as well as its scheduled events.