

WBC Creates Japan Relief Fund

Written by The Sweet Science
Wednesday, 16 March 2011 12:54

The WBC has created the WBC Japan Relief Fund with the objective to raise funds and materials which will be helpful to Japan during these very difficult times after the earthquake and tsunami that struck that beautiful country.

The WBC will work together with promoters, fighters, TV corporations, sponsors and all associated with the boxing industry to try to help as much as possible but also to unite with the country of Japan during these difficult times.

The funds will be deposited in the Red Cross directly in Japan.