Wednesday, March 23, 2011 (Los Angeles) The exclusive Braemar Country Club, in Tarzana, CA, hosts one of the premiere promoters of MMA: KING OF THE CAGE; Turning POINT, sponsored by Snap or Tap Productions, Sunday March 27th.

Headlining the action packed card is valley native Jared "Jack Hammer" Papazian, in a 3 round match up against Kana Hyatt. Former King Of The Cage Champ and UFC veteran Alberto Crane takes on Gabe "The Hitman" Rivas scheduled for 3 rounds, Jamie Toney will see action against Preston Scharf..scheduled for 3 rounds. The lone female on the card is Rhonda Rousey. Rousey competed in the 2008 Beijing Olympics, where she took Bronze in the women's Judo. This is Rousey's first outing as a pro. "Bringing a card like the one we have put together to what is essentially our back yard is amazing, country club meets MMA is genius, two polar opposites any which way you look at it... The San Fernando Valley boasts talent on every corner; with the growing popularity of MMA this is the perfect setting to showcase our fighters, we're very excited to be a part of such a great event and the FIRST ever pro card in the valley, along with King of the Cage"-Snap or Tap Productions.

Doors: 4:30pm
