FACTS:

In 1995, the Oscar de la Hoya Foundation was created to bring a better quality of life to the people of East Los Angeles. Today, with the help of so many, the foundation serves thousands of people annually. The Oscar de la Hoya Foundation supports the Oscar de la Hoya Animo Charter High School, the Cecilia Gonzalez de la Hoya Cancer Center and the Oscar de la Hoya Labor and Delivery Center and Neonatal Intensive Care Unit (both located at White Memorial Hospital in Los Angeles) as well as numerous after school programs that help guide young people toward leading positive lives and away from the circumstances of gang violence, juvenile delinquency and substance abuse. Visit www.goldenboypromotions.com for more information on the Oscar de la Hoya Foundation.
