

Alcine Targets Big Guns After Beating Lemieux

Written by The Sweet Science
Tuesday, 13 December 2011 18:27

New York, NY - (12/13/2011) past Saturday, on Dec. 10, in front of a packed house at the Bell Center. Going into the fight, many viewed Alcine as a sacrificial lamb for the extremely dangerous Lemieux, who

When the fight started, Lemieux came out hard and fast as expected, bombing away with both hands lo

By the middle rounds, it was clear that Lemieux was tiring and Alcine, 13 years his senior, was the fresh

Heading into the championship rounds, the fight was close, but Alcine's experience proved to be the diff

With his career back on track, Alcine has big plans for his immediate future.

"I'm ready to take care of business against anybody Lou DiBella puts in front of me. I can fight at 147, 1

"With his stellar performance against David Lemieux, Joachim just showed the boxing world that his bes