of the round. Good left hook by Canelo in the first minute. But this is a Mosley round so far. The jab is working well.

10-9 Mosley

Round 2

Canelo starts a bit more aggressive as both fighters are getting more comfortable. Canelo is trying to trade jabs. He lands a good right cross, midway through the round. Mosley's jab is still a factor. Canelo's power is showing. Close round until the last minute when Canelo landed three great left hands.

Canelo 10-9

Round 3

Canelo has grown patient, he counters Mosley well with a right cross in the first minute. Mosley is throwing with power but has not connected with a solid shot yet in the fight. Canelo timing is giving him the edge. An accidental head butt causes a cut over Canelo's left eye. Blood is dripping down his face.

10-9 Canelo

Round 4

Canelo's corner handles the cut well. Not a cause for concern. It's still a relatively even fight, Mosley is hanging in, but he needs to do more than throw a jab. From the looks of things on ringside, Canelo does not respect Mosley's power. Mosley is too cautious.

10-9 Canelo

Round 8

Round 8

Canelo invites Mosley to hit him against the ropes. A confident move, an invitation for a knockout punch. The experienced Mosley keeps coming, but eats punches. Blood from the earlier headbutt is streaming down Canelo's face. Yet he still controls the round. Referee tells Shane to watch his head.

10-9 Canelo

Round 9

Canelo keeps pressing. He might not KO the once great Mosley. But he sure is dominating the action. Mosley returns fire at the end of the round. But it was not enough to win.

10-9 Canelo

Round 10

Canelo's maturity is what people will talk about after this fight. He is not looking for the power shot. Everything is natural. Make no mistake, Mosley can still fight, he proved it tonight. But Canelo is too much. Another good round for Canelo.
