Chicago's Molina is coming off an August 10-round unanimous decision win over Damian Frias. After the fight, ESPN.com's Dan Rafael wrote: "Frias proved to be no match for a better all-around fighter in Molina, who pitched a clean shutout. Molina was better in every facet of the fight. He jabbed Frias well, worked the body and went upstairs. It was all Molina, all the time. He showed his full arsenal and stayed sharp, awaiting the day he gets a title shot -- one that he richly deserves."

Molina said of Friday's fight, "Spinks knows how to box, he knows how to fight. He's been around boxing forever, since he was a kid. I've just got to pressure him and work his body. I need to attack."

Spinks is looking to rebound from a June seventh-round knockout loss to Cornelius Bundrage. Spinks, son of former Heavyweight Champion Leon Spinks, enters Friday's fight experienced, having fought former and current titlists Bundrage, Verno Phillips, Jermain Taylor, Roman Karmazin and Zab Judah. Manager Scott Hirsch said, "Molina is a very good fighter. Molina outhustles people, outworks them, and Cory knows that he's got to up his work rate and just not get outhustled and outworked."

Co-Feature:

Friday's co-feature will pit former Lightweight titlist Jose Luis "El Temible" Castillo (64-11-1, 55 KOs), against "The Truth" Antwone Smith (22-4-1, 12 KOs) in a 10-round Welterweight bout. Castillo is coming off a ninth-round TKO win over Ivan Popoca, while Smith is coming off one of his career-best wins, a 10-round unanimous decision over previously undefeated Ronal Cruz.

Additional Bout Exclusively on ESPN3:

Friday's card will also include an eight-round bout between undefeated Heavyweight Artur Szpilka (12-0, 9 KOs) and Mike Mollo (20-3-1, 12 KOs). The card will be carried exclusively at 11 p.m. on ESPN3, ESPN's live multi-screen sports network, that delivers thousands of global sports events annually and accessible online via WatchESPN.com, on smartphones and tablets via the WatchESPN app and through ESPN on Xbox LIVE to Gold level members.
