YUP! An invisible "top contender" is fighting an invisible champion -- total mirage of reality. "HBO World Championship Boxing®" ought to halt the bullsyt promotion. Call a spade a spade. The Russian is an unranked welterweight and a low-ranked light welterweight. The corrupted powers that be hope that he'll be easy meat for the mirage tramp -- I mean champ. And if that is not the case, Tim Bradley will be robbed. What comes around, goes around.

If I were Tim Bradley, I'd pull out of this bout. It is some serious "I'm gonna get dat mutha _____ in the air." TB is an innocent boxer, not a boxing judge. But he is blamed for the crooked-arse judging in Sin City. And in Cali, on his @$$, they will have no pity.

Dang! What's going on? Cali let its homeboy OJ Simpson get away with murdering his wife. But Sin City gives him 30 years for stealing his own syet. Hehehe!

Sin City steals a world title and gives it to do TB when he clearly lost and looked like syet. And now this Cali homeboy is gonna get his stolen syet stolen from him by home judges in the "City of the (fallen) Angels." Talking about the threatre of the unexpected; I smell a twisted threatre of da double fudged-up neglected! Holla!
