Two straight wins for Juan Manuel Lopez has cranked up his confidence level.

"It shows me what I can do while being on a good conditioning and nutritional schedule," Juanma said from Caguas, Puerto Rico. "I want to prove I can still be an elite fighter in this (featherweight) division. Mikey Garcia is a good champion, a tough opponent. But I plan to return to Puerto Rico with the title belt."

Mikey Garcia vs Juan Manuel Lopez is scheduled June 15 at the American Airlines Center in Dallas. HBO will televise.

Juanma's chief trainers, Alex Caraballo and Orlando Pinero, say the former champion is training at a high level.

"Juanma is working hard, is focused and he knows what is at stake," said Caraballo.

Michael Finney, a rugged 11-0, 9 KO super welterweight, is training at the Top Rank Gym in Las Vegas. Richie Sandoval, the former world champion, has been working with Finney who is scheduled to box June 8 on a Solo Boxeo Tecate event at Hard Rock Hotel-Casino in Las Vegas.

Finney, from Alabama, is handled by manager Cameron Dunkin. Finney will take on Raul Tovar of Texas in a six-round bout at the Hard Rock.
