New York, NY (9/5/13) - Having been sought out by every major promotional company in the US, highly regarded amateur prospect Junior "Sugar Boy" Younan has officially decided to make his world championship run under the DiBella Entertainment (DBE) banner. Younan, who will be co-managed by James Prince and Josh Dubin, officially signed a long-term exclusive promotional agreement with DBE earlier this week. Younan, who doesn't turn 18 until October 14, is looking to make his much-anticipated pro debut in late October/early November.

"It's a real honor being signed by DiBella Entertainment," said Younan. "Growing up in New York and being at all the shows, it's really humbling to know that I'm being recognized as one of the best prospects right now by Lou. I plan on showing everyone what I have in me and bringing that spark back to boxing. I feel like I have a great, strong team with DBE, my manager James Prince, my lawyer Josh Dubin and, of course, my father. We're going to make it to the top and that's a promise."

"Anytime that you are able to add the type of caliber fighter that 'Sugar Boy' is to your stable, it's special," said DiBella. "I have been following him since he has been a child and he
