

Rock and Tiger Allen Hurt In Car Crash

Written by Michael Woods
Thursday, 09 June 2011 15:36

Rock, pictured in 2008. (Hogan)

Identical twins Rock and Tiger Allen suffered serious injuries in a one-vehicle crash Tuesday evening, according to Bernard Fernandez, writing on Philly.com.

Tiger was driving and struck a tree, a police report said. He was in the intensive care unit Hahnemann University Hospital, while Rock was in the Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania, Fernandez wrote.

Rock and Tiger Allen Hurt In Car Crash

Written by Michael Woods
Thursday, 09 June 2011 15:36

They are the sons of notable trainer Naazim Richardson.

Rock is 15-0, fighting as a welterweight, with seven KOs. He went 168-10 as an amateur, and was on the 2004 Olympic squad. His bother Tiger has a 3-0 mark, and has been absent from the ring since 2007.

TSS hopes for a full recovery for each.

Comment on this article

Radam G says:

The twins have my prayers. Indeed, as TSS does, I hope a full recovery for each. Stay up, and stay strong Genie Naazim. Holla!

amayseng says:

horrible

hope they are ok.

having a child myself there is not a worse fear in the world for naz or a parent

the Roast says:

That sucks! Best wishes from the Roast!

dino da vinci says:

Men, you're in our prayers.

brownsugar says:

A speedy recovery to the son's....peace, strength, and resilience to their family and friends.