FINAL PRESS CONFERENCE FOR JUNE 1 NBC SPORTS NETWORK "FIGHT NIGHT" AT SANDS CASINO BETHLEHEM

Russell Peltz of Peltz Boxing hosted the final press conference for the June 1 NBC Sports Network Fight Night card. Peltz verified that the tickets were sold out for the event being held at Sands Casino Resort Bethlehem. The NBCSN broadcast will begin at 9PM ET.

Fans can expect to tune in Friday to see two REAL fights. It's rare in boxing these days for the main event and co-feature to be pick 'em fights. Gabriel Rosado, 19-5, 11 KO's, gets kudos for taking a southpaw when training for a rightie in this war for the WBO Inter-Continental Junior Middleweight title. Sechew Powell, 26-4, 15 KO's, is coming to Rosado's backyard after Rosado came off of his recent NBCSN victory prepared to do battle.

Ronald Cruz, 16-0, 12 KO's, is facing a lot of pressure by fighting in front of what is sure to be an exuberant home town crowd against a road warrior, Prenice Brewer, 16-1-1, 6 KO's, who is one win away from the top 15. This is the only televised boxing card scheduled on Friday night. Every boxing/sports fan should tune in!

Words were exchanged as Powell volunteered to hold the WBO belt for the photo opp (photo below). Rosado assured the crowd that he would be the one holding the championship belt come Friday night. A verbal scuffle ensued. Co-promoter, Kathy Duva, CEO of Main Events, expressed gratitude that the fighters waited until Friday night to exchange blows.
