The WBA super bantam champ Guillermo Rigondeaux knocked down overmatched Teon Kennedy five times and notched a KO win, showing himself to be a major, major badass at 122 pounds in the TV opener on the Pacquiao-Brady undercard. The end came at 1:11 of the fifth. The Cuban went 58-183 to 13-179 for the loser from Philly. "Just a brilliant performance," said HBO play by play man Jim Lampley. Readers, who do you think should be next for Rigo?
