I am voting for me, the " boxing fan" for this award. for the last 12 months I have watched as many shows as possible, I have spent a bunch of $$$ I didnt really have on some ppv's, and I have put up with joke verdicts and corruption right in front of my nose. I have weathered the storm and I am still a boxing fan. Without me there wouldnt be any shows. The award goes to "the boxing fan" for saving this sport.

My vote is split for Deep and Mayweather..... Both have been entertaining this year for a variety of reasons.
