

Boxing Year in Review-May 2012

Written by Michael Woods
Friday, 30 November 2012 00:00

The boxing career of Paul Williams came to an abrupt halt when the ex titlist had a motorcycle accident near Atlanta, Georgia on May 27.

The crash left him paralyzed from the waist down, but if anything, grew his fanbase. The grace and good humor which Williams, age 31, seen in picture attending the September Canelo Alvarez-Josesito Lopez fight, displayed following the shocking scenario made all of us respect him that much more.

Boxing Year in Review-May 2012

Written by Michael Woods
Friday, 30 November 2012 00:00

Comment on this article

Radam G says:

The technology is now here in which he will be able to walk and get on his strut again. But, as far as boxing again, I doubt that he will do a Willie Pep or Vinnie Paz. Holla!