

Floyd Mayweather and 50 Cent took the last train to Splitsville, taking to Twitter on Nov. 3 to trade blows. Fiddy lobbed the first bomb when he wrote, "GAMBOA WANTS TO FIGHT FLOYD. I will put up a extra 20 million for the winner.

He don't like it that Floyd pulled out" and "Ellerbe you a broke bum GAMBOA want to fight tell him to Floyd lace up. Lol" as well as, "GAMBOA is the truth, FLOYD no that, stop tricking and Fight." Floyd hurled a counterpunch: "A male boxing groupie.. hold my belts because your album sales have declined" and "I respect the shooter not the one who got shot." A couple days later, Fiddy said the beef was manufactured. He enters 2013 as a boxing promoter and Mayweather continues as the top draw in the game. Will those designations apply at the end of the year?
