

Ricky Hatton had to determine that there wasn't enough left to do the job like he needed to do it, so he hopped back into the ring after 3 1/2 years away.

He looked OK against Vyacheslav Senchenko, but then got caught and was stopped out in round nine. The 34 year-old hero to the masses announced after that he was done, done, done. He'd climbed back from suicidal depths and substance abuse, and proclaimed his comeback a win. All agreed.

Comment on this article