DELVIN RODRIGUEZ WINS AGAIN ON

ESPN FRIDAY NIGHT FIGHTS

NEW YORK (May 25, 2013) Fighting for the sixteenth time on ESPN Friday Night Fights and sixth in front of a huge crowd at the Mohegan Sun Arena, Star Boxing's Delvin Rodriguez once again showed the spirit of a warrior winning a fierce battle against former world title challenger Freddy "El Riel" Hernandez with an eighth round stoppage.

An intense war over the first seven rounds with both fighters working aggressively and punishing each other, but Rodriguez had the upper hand-often hurting Hernandez with outstanding combinations. Throughout the bout, both punches and clashes of heads resulted in numerous cuts for both fighters with each battling valiantly in front of the "loud and proud" area fight fans.

A terrible cut over the left eye of Hernandez caused the fight to be stopped in the seventh round.

Originally scored as a majority decision for Rodriguez, the result was changed to a technical knockout as replays showed Rodriguez's final battering punches caused the cut resulting in the stoppage.

With the win, Rodriguez improves to 29-6-3 (17KO's), while Hernandez falls to 30-6-0 (20KO's).

"This win was indicative of Delvin's entire career, fan friendly and usually doing what is necessary to win," said Joe DeGuardia of Star Boxing. "This was another exciting outing for him and we're looking for bigger fights ahead."
