LAS VEGAS, NEV. (June 4, 2013) -- Top Rank announced today the signing of undefeated light heavyweight contender "Irish" SEANIE MONAGHAN.

One of the top boxing gate attractions in his native New York, Monaghan (18-0, 11 KOs), of Long Beach, NY, captured the World Boxing Council (WBC) Continental Americas light heavyweight title on June 14, 2012, via an eighth-round TKO of Romaro Johnson and successfully defended it last October 24, winning a unanimous decision over Rayco Sanders. Known for his aggressive style and good punching power, especially to the body, Monaghan, 31, is currently world-rated No. 11 by the World Boxing Association (WBA) and No. 18 by the WBC. In last his fight, on April 13, he scored a first-round knockout of Dion Stanley on the undercard of the Nonito Donaire

"It's an honor to sign with Top Rank. I have really improved and I know Top Rank will work hard to get me the big fights," said Monaghan.

"We are very excited. Seanie has fought on some Top Rank-promoted boxing events and everyone with the company is very professional. Top Rank is the No. 1 promoter in the world," said P.J. Kavanagh, Monaghan's manager. "Seanie wants to fight for the world title and we think being with Top Rank will help us get there. The sky's the limit for Seanie. We are moving forward with Top Rank."
