NEW YORK, NY - (6/2/14) - World Boxing Council (WBC)/The Ring middleweight champion and Argentina's favorite son, SERGIO "Maravilla" MARTÍNEZ, held his final media day earlier this afternoon ahead of his upcoming world title defense this Saturday, and the most eagerly anticipated boxing event of 2014 against three-division world champion and the Pride of Puerto Rico, MIGUEL COTTO

Hundreds of media members and even more fans turned out Modell's Sporting Goods flagship store in Times Square, just block from where Martínez will meet Cotto on Saturday night at Madison Square Garden, to get a glimpse of Martínez. Martínez answered questions for the media before performing an intense 30 minute workout, which showed the champion to be in absolutely phenomenal shape ahead of his upcoming title defense. Following his work out, Martínez sat and signed autographs and took photos with every single one of his adoring fans that had come out to show their support.

Below are some brief quotes from Martínez as well as a few select photos from both the media work out, and the Empire State Building, where Martínez took photos with his opponent Miguel Cotto earlier in the afternoon, before heading over to his workout.
