Nearly all the VIP Ringside tickets for the World Junior Welterweight Title fight between Brooklyn's Zab Judah and Kaizer Mabuza of South Africa are sold.

Only a handful of the VIP Ringside tickets, priced at $253 remain in the box office, it was announced today by promoters Main Events and Super Judah Promotions.

"Prudential Center's Amerihealth Pavilion is a much smaller venue than the main arena next door," Main Events promoter Kathy Duva said. "Fans who want to sit right up front in the VIP section should buy their tickets now. The Amerihealth Pavilion is an intimate venue where every seat in the house provides a fantastic view of the action."

Tickets priced at $103, $78 and $53 are still available.

The March 5th card featuring Zab "Super" Judah vs. Kaizer Mabuza for the IBF World Jr. Welterweight title is promoted by Main Events and Super Judah Promotions. An exciting undercard will also feature Sadam "Worldkid" Ali, as well as Tarvis Simms and 5 other local standouts. The fights will take place at Prudential Center's AmeriHealth Pavilion, Newark, NJ.
