The World Boxing Council was visited by Tomas "Gusano" Rojas, but he did not attend the requested audience in regards of what it was released in the media outlets about a fight where he alleged received money in exchange of faking a KO. A press release made today by Promociones Zanfer announced that he is scheduled to fight next February 25th in Ensenada; if this is confirmed, Promociones Zanfer will be also suspended by the World Boxing Council because of indiscipline in such a serious matter like a fraud that allegedly happened and that was released in the press. The World Boxing Council releases this information to all Mexico and the rest of the world.
