

MONTREAL (August 29, 2012) -- Groupe Yvon Michel (GYM) announced yesterday that its ninth year of operation will commence in a few weeks. The popular GYM Boxing Series, "Fast & Furious," as previously announced, returns this coming season with an improved Version 3.0 to the famed Bell Centre in Montreal.

Co-presented once again by Mise-O-Jeu and Videotron, in association with Evenko and the Bell Centre, four "Fast & Dangerous 3.0" events are scheduled, two in the fall and two in 2013, on October 12, December 14, February 8 and May 3.

International recognition

Former World Boxing Council (WBC) light heavyweight champion Jean Pascal (26-2-1, 16 KOs) remains the star of the GYM fighter stable. The goal this year is to position him to become world champion again. As soon as

The Ring Magazine's

No. 2 ranked contender is fully recovered from a hand injury and he has resumed training, his date to return to the ring will be determined. "Fast & Dangerous 3.0" is designed to allow International Boxing Federation (IBF) No. 2 rated super middleweight

Adonis "Superman" Stevenson

(18-1, 15 KOs), WBC International and WBC No. 8 ranked welterweight

Antonin Decarie

(26-1, 7 KOs), undefeated North American Boxing Association (NABA) champion

Kevin Bizier

(17-0, 12 KOs), unbeaten North American Boxing Organization (NABO) light heavyweight titlist

Eleider "Storm" Alvarez

(9-0, 5 KOs) to strengthen their positions among the top contenders in their respective division until they get world title shots; re-launch middleweight knockout artist

David Lemieux

on the international scene, and provide invaluable experience for undefeated Colombian heavyweights, now living in Montreal,

Didier "Big Daddy" Bence

(5-0, 2 KOs) and 2008 Olympian

Oscar Rivas

(11-0, 6 KOs). Other boxers will have opportunities to be showcased in this series, thanks to GYM's close collaboration with Hennessy Sports Canada, Eye of the Tiger Management and Boxing Club East. Stevenson will battle Don George on Oct. 12

New for 2012-2013

New ticket prices and venue configuration, plus fights for worthy causes.

Configuration

The venue configuration this year will encourage a more welcoming atmosphere, while the central placement of the ring will allow visual access on the Jumbotron screens, either standing or ringside, for all seats. VIP seating sections "Ringside" are available with the tables added last season.

Season tickets starting at $144

As in the past, the public has the option to purchase season tickets for four events at the Bell Centre, while enjoying a discount on the regular ticket price. This year ticket prices have been cut by more than 50-percent: $40.50, $70.50 and $110.50 in the stands. The discount also allows fans to now purchase a season ticket for the modest sum of $144 for all four events in the red section, an average of $36 per ticket.

Fighting for charities

GYM will present battles for charitable causes, matching two people uninitiated to the sport of boxing in fights of three, two-minute rounds, under the supervision of Boxing Quebec. A $ 2,000 purse will be awarded to the organization chosen by the winner. The purpose of the exercise, in addition to serving a good cause, is to provide an opportunity the two participating people could never imagine, climbing into the ring prepared to live and feel the same emotions as "real" boxers. The first fight will be between Pullman, 3412avenue Park vs. Filet 219 rue Mont-Royal O. Gabriel Jauvin, sommelier at Pullman, will clash with Denis Lessard, the butler of the Filet, in the light cruiserweight division. The two boxers have chosen to make their purse donation, respectively, to the foundation of Père Sablon or foundation Ali and Princes Street.
