

Dulorme, Pedraza Win In Puerto Rico

Written by The Sweet Science
Saturday, 01 September 2012 20:27

September 1, 2012 - Yesterday the "Night of Champions" card at the Guillermo Angulo Coliseum in Carolina, PR took place. In the main event coveted welterweight fighter

Thomas Dulorme

(16-0, 12 KOs), completely dominated

Yoryi Estrella

(10-8, 7 KOs) in a bout that was scheduled for 10 rounds. An aggressive Estrella tried to keep up in the fight, but Dulorme's quickness and constant combinations caused Estrella to be outshined all the way across the fight. All three judges scored the fight 100-90.

"My opponent came into the fight overweight, but we went after the victory without caring how many pounds he had over the limit. It's no excuse as I accepted the fight because I will fight anybody being that I am a warrior", said Dulorme.

In the co-feature bout, Jose "Sniper" Pedraza (10-0, 6 KO) defeated Jose Valderrama (4-2, 2 KOs) by unanimous decision. Pedraza gave a boxing clinic, going from conventional to southpaw on various occasions. In the sixth round, Valderrama hit the canvas after a pinpoint left hook from Pedraza landed flush on his chin. All judges scored the fight 80-71.

Dulorme, Pedraza Win In Puerto Rico

Written by The Sweet Science
Saturday, 01 September 2012 20:27

At the end of the fight, the referee raised the hands of the winner, the boxer in red trunks, who won the fight by a unanimous decision. The fight was a close one, with both boxers exchanging punches throughout the bout. The boxer in blue trunks was the favorite, but the boxer in red trunks proved to be the more resilient fighter. The fight was a great one, and it was a pleasure to watch. The boxer in red trunks is a true champion, and he deserves the title. The boxer in blue trunks is a great fighter, but he was out of sync with the opening round. The fight was a great one, and it was a pleasure to watch. The boxer in red trunks is a true champion, and he deserves the title. The boxer in blue trunks is a great fighter, but he was out of sync with the opening round.