

Logan McGuinness Fights Carlos Reyes on Dec. 14

Written by The Sweet Science
Monday, 26 November 2012 13:00

TORONTO (Nov 26, 2012) – North American Boxing Association Super Featherweight Champion Logan Cotton McGuinness (18-0-1) defends his title December 14th at Montréal's Famous Bell Centre in a 10-round Special attraction bout against challenger Carlos Manuel Reyes (23-1-1) Of the Dominican Republic.

The 25-year-old Ontario resident will be fighting for the sixth time in "La Bell Province" and looks to impress on the biggest stage of his career thus far.

"(Bell Centre) usually gets 10,000 people," he said. "This is a stacked card...each one of us could be the headliner of our own cards, I'm very excited to be on it," McGuinness said.

McGuinness who is rated No. 7 by the World Boxing Association ("WBA) and was the 2012 NABA Fighter of the Year, has strong support in Montreal's large Irish Canadian Community.

Joining McGuinness is former World Boxing Council (WBC) light heavyweight champion, Jean Pascal

,
Aleksy Kuziemski

,
David Lemieux

,
Eleider Alvarez

, who will meet with

Edison Miranda

in the squared circle, and

Kevin Bizier

This event will be available for viewing by fans in the comfort of their homes via Canal Indigo, Bell TV, Shaw TV in Canada, as well as on WealthTV in the United States.

Logan McGuinness Fights Carlos Reyes on Dec. 14

Written by The Sweet Science
Monday, 26 November 2012 13:00

Tickets are on sale now for the Dec. 14 event at the Bell Centre, as well as the entire GYM boxing series, the innovative and popular "Fast and Furious."

Tickets, starting at $36.00, are available to purchase at the Bell Centre, or at visit www.evenko.ca