NEW YORK (December 10, 2012) - A special edition of DiBella Entertainment's popular "Broadway Boxing" series will air live on FIGHT NOW TV- America's only 24-hour combat sports and entertainment channel - December 19, starting at 9 p.m. ET, from the historic Roseland Ballroom in midtown Manhattan. A portion of the proceeds from the show will be donated to victims of Hurricane Sandy.

The 10-round main event features light heavyweight Will "Power" Rosinsky (16-2, 9 KOs), fighting out of Queens (NY), against former USBA champion Otis "Triple OG" Griffin (24-10-2, 10 KOs).

Also fighting on the broadcast in a pair of eight-round bouts are red-hot Los Angeles-based lightweight prospect Ivan Redkach (12-0, 11 KOs) versus New York State champion Edward "Tyson" Valdez (11-8-2, 8 KOs), while Brooklyn junior welterweight Gabriel "Tito" Bracero (20-1, 3 KOs) takes on veteran Johnnie "The Lumberjack" Edwards (15-5-1, 8 KOs).

"Our viewers love watching 'Broadway Boxing' shows because it always features entertaining boxers in highly-competitive fights," said FIGHT NOW TV Co-Founder & General Manager Mike Garrow

. "Airing a show like this during the holiday season, live from Broadway, especially where it is supporting a great cause for Hurricane Sandy victims, seems like a great way to close out our very successful 2012 FIGHT NOW TV boxing season.

A four-time New York Golden Gloves winner, as well as a 2005 U.S. National amateur champion, Rosinsky is an Emergency Medical Technician (EMT) at FDNY's station in East New York, Brooklyn. He will be out to rebound from back-to-back losses in nationally televised fights to world title contender Edwin Rodriguez and former world champion Kelly Pavlik.

Griffin is best known as the winner of Oscar de la Hoya's "The Next Great Champ" reality television show. The Sacramento native has defeated world champion
