"The next best thing to being inside the MGM Grand Garden Arena on fight night is to watch the fight with other boxing fans on closed circuit in Las Vegas," said Mayweather Promotions CEO Leonard Ellerbe. "We urge boxing fans from across the country and around the world to get their tickets quickly as we anticipate that these closed circuit telecasts will sell out just like the fight itself did."

"With every ticket at the MGM Grand Garden Arena sold out for 'THE ONE,' the next best way for those in Las Vegas or wishing to travel there for the big-fight experience is seeing it via closed circuit," said Richard Schaefer, CEO of Golden Boy Promotions. "Fans can arrive early in the week, go to all the pre-fight events that are open to the public and then watch the fight on Saturday night. It's a great way to experience a mega-event like this."
