

PRESS RELEASE

EDWIN RODRIGUEZ-LARRY ARMY GO SEPARATE WAYS

OFFICIAL STATEMENT ON BREAK-UP

New York, NY (7/31/13) - Edwin Rodriguez and Larry Army Jr., of Elite Management LLC, have jointly announced that their professional relationship has ended amicably under a settlement that has been mutually agreed upon. Edwin appreciates the partnership that he had with Larry since April 2008. He is looking forward to focusing on the next stage of his boxing career and his ultimate goal of winning a world championship. Larry is also moving ahead with his career, having just signed undefeated lightweight prospect Ivan Redkach (14-0, 12 KOs) to a managerial contract, and with other signings looming on the horizon. Both parties have agreed that they will have no further comment on this matter. Edwin continues to be promoted by DiBella Entertainment and is currently celebrating his recent stunning first-round knockout of Denis Grachev in the finals of the Monte Carlo Million Dollar Super 4 Tournament on July 13 in Monaco.