

Adamek Sick, Iffy For Saturday NBC Fight

Written by The Sweet Science
Wednesday, 13 November 2013 17:51

THE SHOW MUST GO ON Turning Stone Resort Casino NBC Fight Night Broadcast 2:30 PM ET/ 11:30 AM PT

VERONA, NY - Saturday's NBC Fight Night in the afternoon network TV boxing show will go on, as planned, whether or not former two time world champion Tomasz Adamek is able to participate in the main event. "This is live broadcast television," said promoter Kathy Duva of Main Events. "We cannot simply postpone. When we learned earlier today that Tomasz had gone to the doctor, we immediately began to discuss contingency plans with our partners at NBC and our hosts at the Turning Stone Resort Casino in Verona, NY."

Adamek has asked for a day to decide if he will feel up to fighting on Saturday. In the meantime, feelers have been sent out to numerous possible substitutes, Duva added. "If the worst happens, we will implement Plan B. Either way, we expect to make an announcement early tomorrow afternoon. The show must go on."

The 8-round battle of unbeatens between Karl Dynamite Dargan and Mike Brooks will take place, as scheduled. More details to follow.

WATCH RELATED VIDEOS ON BOXINGCHANNEL.TV