

Peter "Lightning" Lewison

Written by The Sweet Science
Thursday, 03 April 2014 12:36

Philadelphia, PA: 26 year old Mike Lee (11-0, 6 KOs), who is best known for his appearances in national Subway® commercials, fights Peter "Lightning" Lewison (6-0, 5 KOs), of the Cayman Islands Friday night at the Liacouras Center as part of the stacked undercard of the Cunningham-Mansour heavyweight fight for the USBA title. Lee and Lewison will face off for six rounds of light heavyweight action at the Liacouras Center.

Byrd & Lee

Photo Credits: Rich Graessle/Main Events

Lee, a graduate of Notre Dame, has not fought since Sep. 15, 2012 when he defeated Paul Harness in a four round unanimous decision in Las Vegas, NV. Prior to that he defeated Tyler Seever with a second round TKO in Las Vegas, NV, Aug. 4, 2012. Mike trained for this fight with legendary southpaw and former IBF Heavyweight Champion Chris "Rapid Fire" Byrd (41-51, 22 KOs) in San Diego, CA. Lee said, "I am excited to be back in the ring. Working with Chris Byrd has been incredible. I am excited to be on the Main Events' card and out here in Philly."

Lewison, who is also undefeated, has a staggering 83% knockout-to-win ratio in six career fights. His last fight was a six round majority decision win over Mike Sawyer Oct. 26, 2013 in his hometown of Georgetown, Cayman Islands. Tomorrow night he will make his United States debut as all six of his professional fights have taken place in his native Cayman Islands.

Peter "Lightning" Lewison

Written by The Sweet Science
Thursday, 03 April 2014 12:36

WATCH RELATED VIDEOS ON BOXINGCHANNEL.TV