

"My daughter's family is active in the community and thei local Church. When I told them that Andre SOG Ward was the Tebow of boxing, they became engrossed in the fight like grizzled cigar-chomping boxing fans. Ward presents a different look to the prizefighter stereotype...a good look.... can't wait to see where his career takes him next." --TSS reader Brown Sugar is psyched to see what Ward does next