

"i understand clinching as part of the game. i am a huge Bernard Hopkins fan in all...But when Wlad's opponent is so out matched it is not even funny he should not have to resort to excessive clinching and holding....I can see Ali clinching due to Frazier landing those thudding rib crushing left hooks inside..But for Wlad to hold a near 40 past prime, old slow cruiser weight is shameful and a bit embarrassing...He should not have to resort to such tactics..."

---Amayseng gets clinching..to a point
