

Not A Floyd Fan

Tuesday, 02 April 2013 09:38

Not interested in the least in the Floyd doc. I have better things to do than watch Floyd fail at being funny, count his money or talk on it pretending like it is a phone, or also play the victim role like no one has had a tough childhood or life. I watch children die of cancer and this moron sheds a tear talking about having hoodlum parents while he traveled the world and became a champion and rich by 19 years old. Spare me. ---Amayseng doesn't buy the Floyd backstory
